Bengal Act VI of 1862.

(The Bengal Rent Act, 1862.)<sup>1</sup>

(14th May 1862.)

Whereas it is expedient to amend Act X of 1859<sup>3</sup>, so far as the same relates to the Provinces subject to the Government of Bengal; It is enacted as follows :—

1. [Repeal of certain sections of Act X of 1859]. Rep. by the Amending Act, 1903 (1 of 1903).

2. In any suit <sup>4</sup> * * * for rent under Act X of 1859<sup>3</sup>, if it shall appear to the Court that the defendant has without reasonable or probable cause neglected or refused to pay the amount due by him, and that he has not before the institution of the suit tendered such amount to the plaintiff or his duly authorized agent, or, in case of refusal of the plaintiff or such agent to receive the amount tendered, has not deposited such amount with the Collector before the institution of the suit in manner hereinafter mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Court to award to the plaintiff, in addition to the amount decreed for rent and costs, such damages, not exceeding twenty-five per cent. on the amount of rent decreed, as the Court may think fit.

Legislative Papers.—The Bill (without any Statement of Object<sup>5</sup> and Reasons) was published in the Calcutta Gazette, 1862, p. 602<sup>6</sup> for Report of Select Committee, see ibid, p. 1319.

Local Extent.—Since this Act is (see section 21 post) to be “read with and taken as part of” Act X of 1859, it applied originally, like the latter Act, to the whole of the former Province of Bengal. It has, however, been repealed by the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (VIII of 1885), in the whole of the former Province of Bengal except “the town of Calcutta, the Division of Orissa and the Scheduled Districts.”

The extension of the repeal to Scheduled Districts depends upon the terms of notifications extending the Act of 1885 to such Districts. Under the terms of the Notifications extending the Act of 1885 to the Jalpaiguri district, the repeal has taken effect in that district.

The application of the Act is barred in the Chittagong Hill-tracts by the Chittagong Hill-tracts Regulation, 1900 (1 of 1900), section 4(2).

The only portion of the present Province of Bengal<sup>7</sup> in which Ben. Act VI of 1862 appears to be effectually in force at the present time is the Darjeeling district.

<sup>2</sup> These words and figure were substituted for certain words by the Bengal Repealing and Amending Act, 1938 (Ben. Act I of 1939).

per cent.

3. In any suit * * * for rent under Act X of 1859<sup>1</sup> if it shall appear to the Court that the plaintiff has instituted the suit against the defendant without reasonable or probable cause, or that the defendant before the institutions of the suit duly deposited with the Collector in the manner hereinafter mentioned the full amount which the Court shall find to have been due to the plaintiff at the date of such deposit, it shall be lawful for the Court to award to the defendant by way of compensation such sum, not exceeding twenty-five per cent. on the whole amount claimed by the plaintiff, as the Court may think fit; and such sum, with interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum until payment thereof, shall be recoverable from the plaintiff in like manner as sums decreed to be paid by defendants under Act X of 1859<sup>1</sup> are recoverable.

Under-tenant or *raiya*t may,
after tender,
pay into Court, without suit brought,
what he admits to be due to samindar, etc.

4. If any under-tenant or *raiya*t shall, at the mâl-cutcherry for the receipt of rents or other place where the rents of the land held or cultivated by him are usually payable, tender payment of what he shall consider to be the full amount of rent due from him at the date of the tender to the samindar or other person in receipt of the rent of such land, and if the amount so tendered shall not be accepted, and a receipt in full forthwith granted, it shall be lawful for the under-tenant or *raiya*t, without any suit having been instituted against him, to deposit such amount in the Collector's Court, to the credit of the samindar or other person aforesaid.

Payment into Court to have effect of payment to samindar, or person entitled.

And such deposit shall, so far as the under-tenant or *raiya*t and all persons claiming through or under him are concerned, in all respects operate as and have the full effect of a payment then made by the under-tenant or *raiya*t of the amount deposited, to such samindar or other person.

Proceedings on payment
into Court.

5. The Collector shall receive such deposit on the application of the under-tenant or *raiya*t, or his agent, made in writing * * * and on the under-tenant or *raiya*t, or his agent, making a declaration in the form, or as nearly as circumstances will admit in the forms, set forth in the Schedule A hereto annexed; and the Collector shall give a receipt for the same.

If the declaration shall contain any averment which the person making the declaration shall know or believe to be false, or shall not know or believe to be true, such person shall be subject to punishment according to the law for the time

Upon receiving the money so deposited, the Collector shall issue a notice to the person to whose credit it has been deposited in the form set forth in the Schedule B hereto annexed, and such notice shall be served by the Collector, without the payment of any fee, either upon the person to whom it is addressed or upon his naib, gumastha or other agent; and in the absence of any such agent it shall be served by sticking up a copy of the same in the office of the Collector, and another copy at the mdl cutcherry for the receipt of rents, or other place where the rents are usually paid for the land in respect of which the money has been deposited.

If the person to whom such notice is issued, or his duly authorized agent, shall appear and apply that the money in deposit be paid to him, it shall be immediately made over to him.

Payment to creditor.

6. Whenever a deposit shall have been made under the provisions of this Act, no suit shall be brought against the person making the deposit or his representatives on account of any rent which accrued due prior to the date of the deposit, unless such suit is instituted within six months from the date of the service of the notice in the fifth section of this Act mentioned.

Limitation of suit for further balances.

7. The defendant in any suit under this Act or under Act X of 1859<sup>1</sup> instituted after the passing of this Act may, if he have duly tendered the same to the plaintiff before the institution of the suit, pay into Court such sum of money as he shall consider to be due to the plaintiff without paying in any costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment, and such sum shall be immediately paid out of Court to the plaintiff.

After suit brought, defendant may pay into Court, without costs, money tendered before.

If after such payment the plaintiff elects to proceed in the suit, and ultimately recovers no further sum than shall have been paid into Court, the plaintiff shall be charged with the whole costs of the suit incurred by the defendant; but if the plaintiff ultimately recovers a further sum than shall have been paid into Court, the defendant shall be charged with the whole costs of the suit.

The defendant in any suit under this Act or under Act X of 1859<sup>1</sup> * * * may, without having made any tender before action brought, pay into Court such sum of money as he shall consider to be due to the plaintiff, together with the costs (to be fixed by the Court, if necessary, as of a suit originally instituted for the amount so paid into Court) incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment, and such sum shall immediately be paid out of Court to the plaintiff.

If no previous tender has been made, defendant may pay into Court what he admits to be due with costs on that (Secs. 9, 10.)

Costs if

If after such payment the plaintiff elects to proceed in the suit, and ultimately recovers no further sum than shall have been paid into Court, we shall be charged with all costs incurred by the defendant subsequently to such payment; but, if the plaintiff ultimately recovers a further sum than shall have been paid into Court, the defendant shall (including the sum paid into Court by him in the first instance on account of costs) be charged with costs as upon a suit originally instituted for the whole amount for which the plaintiff ultimately obtains a decree.

Survey and measurement of lands.

9. Every proprietor of an estate or tenure, or other person in receipt of the rents of an estate or tenure, has a right of making a general survey and measurement of the lands comprised in such estate or tenure, or any part thereof, unless restrained from doing so by express engagement with the occupants of the lands.

If any person intending to measure any land which he has a right to measure is opposed in making such measurement by the occupant of the land, or if any under-tenant or raiyat, having received notice of the intended measurement of land held or cultivated by him, which is liable to such measurement, refuses to attend and point out such land, such person may make application to the Collector, and the Collector shall thereupon proceed to inquire into the case in the manner provided for suits under Act X of 1859<sup>1</sup>, and shall pass a decision either allowing or disallowing the measurement, and, if the case so require, enjoining or excusing the attendance of any such under-tenant or raiyat.

If any under-tenant or raiyat after the issue of an order enjoining his attendance, neglects to attend and to point out the land, it shall not be competent to him to contest the correctness of the measurement made or any of the proceedings held in his absence.

Measurement of lands, where it cannot be ascertained who are the persons liable to pay rent.

10. If the proprietor of an estate or tenure, or other person entitled to receive the rents of an estate or tenure, is unable to measure the lands comprised in such estate or tenure or any part thereof, by reason that he cannot ascertain who are the persons liable to pay rent in respect of the lands or any part of the lands comprised therein, such proprietor or other person may petition the Collector in respect of the lands which he cannot measure as aforesaid; and the Collector thereupon, and on the necessary costs being deposited with him by the applicant, shall proceed to measure the land and to ascertain and record the names of the persons in occupation of the same, or on the special application of the proprietor or other person aforesaid, but not otherwise, shall proceed to ascertain, determine and record the tenures, and under-tenures, the rates of rent payable in respect of such lands, and the persons by whom respectively the rents are payable.

The provisions of section 67 of Act X of 1859<sup>1</sup> shall apply to any proceeding of the Collector instituted under this section.

If after due enquiry the Collector shall be unable to measure the land, or to ascertain or record the names of the persons in occupation of the same, or if he shall (in any case in which such special application shall have been made as aforesaid) be unable to ascertain who are the persons having tenures or under-tenures in such lands or any part thereof, then and in any such case he may declare the same to have lapsed to the party on whose petition he has made the inquiry.

If any person, within fifteen days after the Collector shall have recorded the name of such person as being in occupation of such land or any part thereof, or shall have declared a tenure to have lapsed, shall appear and show good and sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance, and shall satisfy the Collector that there has been a failure of justice, the Collector may, upon such terms or conditions as he may think proper, alter or rescind his declaration according to the justice of the case.

Save as aforesaid, the decision of the Collector on all matters inquired into and determined by him under this or the last preceding section shall be final, unless the same shall be reversed on appeal therefrom to the Civil Court.

Such appeals shall lie to the Zila Judge or to the Sadar Court, subject to the provisions and conditions contained in sections 160 and 161 of Act X of 1859.<sup>1</sup>

11. All measurements made under this Act shall be made by the standard pole of measurement of the pargana in which the land is situated.

Measurements to be by pargana pole.

12. In any suit<sup>2</sup> * for the recovery of an arrear of rent, the statement shall specify the name of the village and estate and of the pargana or other local division in which the land is situate, the yearly rent of the land, the amount (if any) received on account of the year for which the claim is made, the amount in arrear, and the time in respect of which it is alleged to be due.

Form of plaint in suits for arrears of rent.

If the arrear is alleged to be due from any raiyat, the statement shall further specify the quantity of land, and, where fields have been numbered in a Government survey, the number (if it be possible to give it) of each field.

13. In all cases in which the Collector shall pass an order under section 58 of Act X of 1859<sup>1</sup> for setting aside a judgment, the order shall be final; but in all appealable cases in which the Collector shall reject the application an appeal shall lie from the order of rejection to the tribunal to which the final decision in the suit would be appealable:

LEGISLATIVE PAPERS.—For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Calcutta Gazette 1867, p. 341.

LOCAL EXTENT.—The original local extent of this Act must (see section 5) be taken to have been the same as that of Act X of 1859 and Ben. Act VI of 1862, namely, the whole of the former Province of Bengal. The Act has however been repealed by the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (VIII of 1885), s. 2(1), everywhere except "the town of Calcutta, [the Division of Orissa] and the Scheduled Districts."

The extension of the repeal to Scheduled Districts depends upon the terms of notifications extending the Act of 1885 to such districts. Under the terms of the notifications, extending the Act of 1885 to the Jalpaiguri district, the repeal has taken effect in that district.

The application of the Act is barred in the Chittagong Hill-tracts by the Chittagong Hill-tracts Regulation, 1900 (1 of 1900), s. 4(2).

The only portions of the present Province of Bengal in which Ben. Act IV of 1867 appears to be effectually in force at the present time is the Darjeeling District.

the Collector shall require him to deposit the estimated costs of any further inquiry which it may be necessary to make in respect of his objection ;

and, if the said person shall fail to deposit such costs within the time specified by the Collector, he shall be deemed for all purposes of this Act to have admitted the correctness of the said maps and papers.

If the costs of any inquiry which may be deemed necessary be deposited, the Collector shall make such further inquiry at the expense of the person so objecting ; and, if the objection shall seem to the Collector not to be well-founded, he may pass such order as he shall think fit in respect of the recovery from the objector of any sum expended by the Collector on the inquiry in excess of the sum deposited, and of any necessary

Provided that no rent-free holding of which the annual value is less than five rupees shall be liable to pay any portion of the expenses of erecting boundary-marks under this Act.

Collector
may cause boundary-mark to be erected by occupant

Such list shall be published by being posted at the office of the subdivisional officer and at a conspicuous place in some village within which lands appertaining to the tenure are situate.

the notice to be served on the zamindar under section 25 shall inform the zamindar, in addition to the particulars specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of the said section, and instead of those specified in clauses (e) and (f), and shall warn him—

that if he fails to prefer any objection to such provisional apportionment on or before the date specified, he will be deemed to have given up all right to prefer any such objection at any future time; and that the Collector will proceed to make such apportionment final, or to make any modifications in it which he may think fit :

Provided that the sum finally made payable by the zamindar shall not exceed the sum apportioned upon him in the said provisional apportionment between the zamindars and the tenure-holders.

Mode of apportionment among tenures.

35. So soon as the final apportionment among tenure-holders under section 30 shall be completed, the Collector shall cause to be issued notices to each of the said tenure-holders stating the amount payable in respect of each of their tenures, with interest (if any) calculated at the annual rate of six per centum from the date on which the zamindar paid to the Collector the sum which was apportioned on his estate under section 26, and the cost of serving upon the tenure-holder the notice under this section and calling upon him to pay the total amount so due to the zamindar of the estate of which the tenure is a part, within one month of the date of the notice :

Notice of apportionment in respect of tenures.

Provided that no separate notice shall be served under this section on any tenure-holder who is required to pay a sum of less than two rupees as his share of the expenses apportioned under this Act; but in respect of such sums it shall be sufficient to publish a list in the manner prescribed by section 30, and no costs incurred in respect of the publication of any such list shall be recoverable from any person mentioned therein as liable to pay less than two rupees.

No separate notice to tenure-holder required to pay less than two rupees.

36. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 35, the Collector shall not issue the notices therein mentioned to the tenure-holders until the zamindars concerned shall have deposited with the Collector the full amount of the costs of serving all the notices, and of publishing the lists as required by that section.

6. The Settlement-officer may, on some one or other of the following grounds and not otherwise, record a higher rent as demandable from any raiyat having a right of occupancy than the rent which was previously paid by him, namely :—

No suit under this section shall be instituted otherwise than within four months after the publication of the jamabandi, or extracts as aforesaid, in the village in which the lands which are the subject of the suit or any part thereof are situated.

24. The Collector may, whenever he may think fit cause a notice in the Form No. 1 in Schedule B contained to be served on any person holding any lands or possessing any interest therein, although such person may have been mentioned in any return as a cultivating raiyat ; and thereupon such person shall be bound to make a return of the annual value of such lands within one month from the service of such notice in the form in Schedule A contained, and the provisions of sections 17 and 18 regarding extension of time for lodging a return and regarding fines respectively shall be applicable to such person.

Person returned as cultivating raiyat may be served with notice.

25. If no return is made by any person on whom a notice has been served as provided in the last preceding section, the Collector may proceed, by such ways and means as to him shall seem expedient, to ascertain the annual value of the lands held by such person ; and, in case it appears that such annual value is greater than the rent paid by such person, the expense of such valuation shall be borne by such person and may be recovered with all costs of recovery thereof as provided in sections 98 and 99, but in all other cases shall be borne by the District Road Fund.

If no return made, Collector may ascertain annual value of lands.

(Part II.—Mode of Assessment.—Chapter II.—Valuation of Lands—Secs. 26-29.)

Collector may correct classification in returns.

26. If it shall appear to the Collector that any person on whom a notice has been served under section 24 has been wrongly classed in the return as a cultivating raiyat, the Collector may direct that the entry be corrected and that such person be classed as a tenure-holder ; and thereupon such person shall be deemed to be a tenure-holder for the purposes of the assessment and levy of the cesses in respect of the lands held by him.

Summary valuation of small revenue-paying estates and tenures.

27. Whenever the revenue annually payable in respect of any estate, or the rent annually payable in respect of any tenure, does not exceed the sum of one hundred rupees, the Collector may, without issuing any notice for such estate or tenure,—

(a) in any case determine the annual value of the land comprised therein to be in a permanently-settled estate or tenure a sum not exceeding three times, and in a temporarily-settled estate or tenure a sum not exceeding twice, the amount of the annual revenue or rent payable therefor ; or,

(b) when the area of the said estate or tenure has been ascertained, determine the annual value of such estate or tenure to be at such rate per acre as to him shall seem fit.

Summary valuation of small revenue-free estates and rent-free tenures of which the area has been ascertained.

28. When the area of any revenue-free estates or rent-free tenure, the gross rental of which does not exceed, or is not estimated by the Collector to exceed, the sum of one hundred rupees, has been ascertained, the Collector may, without issuing any notice for such estate or tenure, determine the annual value of such estate or tenure to be at such rate per acre as to him may seem fit.

Computation of annual value of land comprised in a subordinate tenure in a summarily valued estate or tenure.

29. When the land contained in any estate or tenure has been summarily valued by the Collector in the manner provided by clause (a) of section 27, the annual value of any portion of such land which is comprised within a tenure subordinate to such estate or tenure shall be determined according to the following rules :—

(1) When the subordinate tenure comprises the whole of the estate or superior tenure, the annual value of

of 1880.]

(Part II.—Mode of Assessment.—Chapter II.—Valuation of Lands.—Sec. 29.)

the subordinate tenure shall be taken to be the same as that of the estate or superior tenure.

Example.—An estate paying a revenue of Rs. 80 is summarily valued by the Collector under clause (a) of section 27 at Rs. 200. The whole estate is let in patni for a rent of Rs. 120. The annual value of the patni tenure will be Rs. 200.

(2) When the subordinate tenure comprises a part only of the land constituting the estate or superior tenure—

- (a) the difference between the annual value of the estate or superior tenure, and the revenue or rent payable in respect of such estate or superior tenure, shall first be ascertained;
- (b) next, the ratio which such difference bears to such revenue or rent shall be ascertained;
- (c) then the amount which bears the same ratio to the rent payable in respect of the subordinate tenure shall be ascertained;
- (d) half of the amount so ascertained shall be added to the rent payable in respect of the subordinate tenure; and the result shall be taken to be the annual value of the subordinate tenure.

Example A.—An estate paying revenue of Rs. 60 is summarily valued by the Collector under clause (a) of section 27 at Rs. 100. A part only of the estate is let in patni for a rent of Rs. 37-8.

The difference between the annual value of the estate (Rs. 100) and the revenue paid in respect of it (Rs. 60) is Rs. 40. This difference bears a ratio of two-thirds to this revenue (Rs. 60). The amount which bears the same ratio (two-thirds) to the rent payable in respect of the patni Rs. 37-8) is Rs. 25;

add half of Rs. 25 to the rent payable in respect of the patni tenure, and the result (Rs. 37-8 + Rs. 12-8 =) Rs. 50 will be the annual value of the patni tenure.

Example B.—Within the patni tenure paying a rent of Rs. 37-8, as in Example A, is a darpatni tenure paying a rent of Rs. 27.

The difference between the annual value of the patni tenure ascertained as above (Rs. 50) and the rent payable in respect of the patni (Rs. 37-8) is Rs. 12-8, which bears a ratio of one-third to the said rent.

The word "ratio", in Example B, was substituted for the word "rate" by the Amending Act, 1903 (1 of 1903).

(Part II.—Mode of Assessment.—Chapter II.—Valuation of Lands.—Secs. 30-34.)

The amount which bears the same ratio (one-third) to the rent payable in respect of the darpatni (Rs. 27) is Rs. 9 ;

add half of Rs. 9 to the rent payable in respect of the darpatni, and the result (Rs. 27 + Rs. 4-8 =) Rs. 31-8 will be the annual value of the darpatni tenure.

When such land may be valued according to rate per acre.

30. When the land contained in any estate or tenure has been summarily valued according to a rate per acre, under clause (b) of section 27, or under section 28, the annual value of the land comprised in any subordinate tenure shall be taken at the same rate per acre as that of the estate or superior tenure.

Holder of summarily valued estate or tenure may lodge return.

31. The holder of any estate or tenure which has been summarily valued under section 27 or 28, may, within one month from the posting of the valuation-roll in respect thereof under section 35, lodge a return in the form in Schedule A contained in regard to such estate or tenure, and thereupon such return shall be deemed to be a return made as required by section 16 and shall be dealt with accordingly.

Collector may value small estate or tenure by regular process.

32. Instead of proceeding to value any estate or tenure summarily under the provisions of section 27 or 28, the Collector may, if he think fit, cause a notice to be served in respect of any such estate or tenure in the Form No. I in Schedule B contained, or in the Form No. II in the said schedule contained, as the case may be, and thereupon all the provisions of this Part shall apply in the same way as they would have applied if the annual Government revenue or rent payable in respect of such estate or tenure had exceeded one hundred rupees.

Lands used for Tea, Coffee or Cinchona.

Return of plantations, etc.

33. In the case of lands acquired under any rule issued by, or under the authority of, the Government for the sale, lease, grant or clearance of waste-lands, or held directly from Government, and used for the cultivation of tea, coffee, or cinchona, the Collector shall, in lieu of the notice prescribed by section 16, cause a notice to be served calling on the holder of such lands to lodge, within two months of the service of such notice, a return in the form in Schedule C contained, giving the particulars in such form set forth ; and the annual value of such lands shall be fixed at ten rupees in respect of every acre therein entered as cultivated, unless the Board of Revenue shall in any particular case prescribe a lower rate.

The provisions of sections 18 and 21 shall apply to all lands in respect of which a notice has been issued under this section.

Publication of Valuation-rolls and Duration of Valuations.

Valuation-rolls to be prepared.

34. Whenever any valuation or revaluation is made under this Part, the Collector shall cause to be prepared from

On the application of any holder of an estate or tenure or holding, and on payment of such copying fee as the Board of Revenue shall from time to time determine, the Collector shall cause to be furnished to such holder a copy or corrected copy of so much of any such returns, and of any such roll, as relates to the lands included within his estate, tenure or holding.

35. On the completion of every roll prescribed under this Part, the Collector shall cause a copy thereof to be posted up at the mâl-cutcherry of the estate to which such roll refers, and shall cause extracts of such portions of any such roll as refer to any tenure to be posted up at the mâl-cutcherry of such tenure : Publication of rolls.

Provided that, if no such mâl-cutcherry be found, such roll and such extracts shall be posted up at some conspicuous places on the estate and tenures respectively to which they refer, and that, if such estate or tenure cannot be found, such roll and such extracts shall be posted at some conspicuous place in any village in which such estate or tenure is believed to be situate.

The person who is entrusted with the publication of any such return shall obtain an acknowledgment in writing signed by two persons who may be either respectable residents of the neighbourhood, or chaukidars, or other <sup>1</sup>[servants of the Crown], to the effect that such return was duly published on the spot, and shall give in such acknowledgment to the Collector. To be attested by two persons.

36. Except as otherwise in this Part expressly provided, every valuation and revaluation made under this chapter shall remain in force for the term of five years from the date fixed by the <sup>2</sup>[Board of Revenue] under section 12 as the date from which the cess leviable in pursuance thereof shall take effect, and thereafter, until another revaluation and assessment in substitution therefor shall have been ordered and completed. Effect of opening separate account under Act XI of 1859 or Bengal Act VII of 1876.

The procedure prescribed by sections 34 and 35 shall be followed whenever a redistribution of the valuation is made in consequence of a partition as mentioned in <sup>1</sup>[this section].

44. (1) When a recorded sharer of a joint revenue-paying estate has opened a separate account under Act XI of 1859<sup>2</sup>, or under section 70 of Bengal Act VII of 1876<sup>3</sup>, or any similar law for the time being in force for the regulation of the opening and maintaining of such separate accounts, he shall be entitled, in regard to the payment and realization of road cess and public works cess under this Act, to all the advantages of separate liability enjoyed by him under the said Act XI of 1859<sup>2</sup> and Bengal Act VII of 1876<sup>3</sup> in regard to the payment and realization of revenue, and shall be entitled to separate assessment and to the issue of separate notices under this Act from the date on which such advantages shall take effect in respect of the demand of Government revenue.

(2) Whenever any such separate account is opened after the valuation of an estate, and while such valuation remains in force, the Collector shall issue a notice on the holders of the shares severally, in respect of which the accounts are to be kept separately, informing them that, unless any objection is preferred to the Collector within one month of the service of such notice, the amount of the cesses which the whole estate is liable to pay according to the existing valuation will, from the date on which such separate accounts were opened, be apportioned among such shares severally in proportion to the amount of Government revenue for the payment of which each such share is entered in the separate accounts as being liable. Such notice shall specify such proportionate amount.

(3) If no such objection be preferred within the time specified, such proportionate amount shall be the amount of the cesses for which the respective holders of such several shares are primarily liable as mentioned in section 13 of Act XI of 1859<sup>2</sup> subject, however, to the general responsibility of the holders of the entire estate as mentioned in section 14 of the said Act, if the amount of the cesses due on account of any such share cannot be recovered as provided in sections 98 and 99 of this Act from the holders of such share.

41. In any such case which is referred to the Judge and assessors for the purpose of determining whether any, and, if so, what amount of compensation should be awarded, the Judge and assessors shall take into consideration—

First, the market-value of the property or right injuriously affected at the time when the act was done or the work executed ;

Secondly, the damage sustained by the claimant by reason of such act or work injuriously affecting the property or right ;

Thirdly, the consequent diminution of the market-value of the property or right injuriously affected when the act was done or the work executed ;

Fourthly, whether any person has derived, or will derive, benefit from the act or work in respect of which the compensation is claimed, or from any work connected therewith, in which case they shall set off the estimated value of such benefit, if any, against the compensation which would otherwise be decreed to such person.

Matters not to be considered in determining compensation.

But the Judge or assessors shall not take into consideration—

First, the decree of urgency which has led to the act or work being done or executed ;

Secondly, any damage sustained by the claimant, which if caused by a private person, would not in any suit instituted against such person justify a decree for damages.

Payment of sum apportioned.

68. On the completion of any charge or apportionment under this Act, the Collector shall make an order specifying the estates and tenures in respect of which any sum charged or apportioned is payable, and the sums payable in respect of each of the instalments of such sums, and the dates on which such sums are payable.

As soon as may be after any final order of apportionment is made, as provided in the section last preceding, the Collector shall cause copy of such order to be published with a general notice stating that the amounts apportioned on the zamindars in respect of estates are payable to the Collector, and the amounts apportioned on the tenure-holders in respect of tenures are payable to the zamindars or superior tenure-holders. Instead of causing a general notice to be published the Collector may cause special notices to the same effect to be served in respect of every estate and tenure on or among the zamindars or tenure-holders of which any sum is charged or apportioned.

Publication of final order of apportionment.

70. If any such sum payable to the Collector, or any instalment thereof, be not pursuant to the said order, paid, the same with interest may be recovered as arrears of a demand under the provisions of <sup>2</sup>[the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913], or, any similar Act for the time being in force.

Bar to interference by
